

Year 5 Rule Britannia

Enquiry question: Why did Britain build such a wide empire?

National Curriculum Objectives		Core Knowledge & Key Questions			Local links
A study of an aspect or theme in British history that extends pupils' chronological knowledge beyond 1066. The changing power of monarchs using a case study of Queen Anne and George I.		How did global trade develop in the Georgian era? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To understand why Britain wanted an empire To understand the origins of the British Empire and global trade How did British naval strength enable the development of the British Empire? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To understand the role of the British navy in the development of the British Empire. How did the exploitation of enslaved Africans contribute to global trade? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To understand the role of the 'Triangle Trade' in the development of the British Empire and global trade To understand the impact of the Slave Trade Why was India significant in the development of the British Empire? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To understand why British control spread through India after 1750 How did Godalming play a part in the creation of the British Empire? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> To investigate how the Oglethorpe family contributed to the British Empire with the foundation of the colony of Georgia 			The Oglethorpe family, a local Godalming family, founded the colony of Georgia (named after George I)
					Key Figures George I Horatio Nelson Equiano Robert Clive Oglethorpe	Linked Texts
Prior Learning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> In Year 4, the children learn about the Stuarts and the Glorious Revolution, which brought Queen Anne to the throne after William and Mary. The previous unit in Year 5 introduced the Georgian era. 					Future Learning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Throughout Year 5, the children will find out about the French and American revolutions and the abolition of slavery.
Chronology	Similarities & differences	Continuity & change	Cause & consequence	Significance	BIG Question: Outcome & Assessment Opportunity
		How did global trade develop in the Georgian era?	How did British naval strength enable the development of the British Empire? How did the exploitation of enslaved Africans contribute to global trade?	Why was India significant in the development of the British Empire?	Why did Britain build such a wide empire?	