We will continue to give out weekly reading, literacy and maths homework. These will be in the form of CGP revision books that we have purchased for the children. This will be given out separately to home learning grids and will be explained in class time.

We are also providing drop-in lunch time sessions or ‘homework club’, where children who would like to have more support or ask questions about their homework are welcome to attend.

If you take any pictures or do anything electronically, feel free to send them to info@loseleyfields.surrey.sch.uk
